

1. Honesty is the best policy.
2. Sometimes it is better to go along with the crowd than to do the right thing.
3. It is important to act for the good of the public rather than for the good of the individual.
4. People who live unusual lifestyles should be reformed.
5. I do not hold grudges against people; I can forgive easily.
6. An eye for an eye is fair.
7. Mass hysteria can only thrive when at least a small group of people stand to benefit from it.
8. Government agencies/politicians generally act on behalf of the public.
9. Guilt by association is often legitimate.
10. Most adults follow the same moral rules in their private lives as they do in their public lives.
11. A person's good name is one of his or her most valuable possessions.
12. Many women feel they have to be manipulative to attain their
13. Women today are repressed.
14. The actions of children reflect the teachings of their parents.
15. The justice system is equitable and effective.
16. It is better to keep a suspect in custody, even if there isn't proof to convict him or her.
17. It is better to live with a lie than to die for the truth.
18. Telling only half the truth is not the same as lying.
19. It is okay to tell a lie if you are protecting someone.
20. My classmates are generally honest people.