

11. The church goers have been humble & quiet. Now... with Tom's loud & strict conversion, he is the exact opposite! He is even "mean" about others sins.
12. "rigid in religion" } lightens the mood
"money matters" } Makes Tom look ridiculous
13. He carried a small Bible in his pocket.
He kept a big Bible on his desk.
He buried his horse upside down!
14. $ & greed - focused his eyesight on...
15. The thunderstorm foreshadowed Tom's demise. It adds suspense & quickens the pace
16. "You" makes the text more personal - as if the narrator is telling the story to us to make it more dramatic & personal. The narrator is reminding the audience that we can learn from Tom's mistakes.
17. Tom says "Charity begins at home." This is ironic because he did not spend any money on his home. He is satirizes how some greedy people take advantage of families.
18. Completion → death
19. He implements imagery & specific descriptions of Tom's goofy capture. The thunderbolts & fire made it dramatic.